ACTION BEGINS FOR RECEIVER

A bill in equity was filed at the instance of the Attorney General late yesterday afternoon praying for a receiver for the Hawaiian Realty and Maturity Company, Limited. It is returnable before Judge De Bolt on Thursday morning.

The complainants for the purposes of the suit are three stockholders in the discredited corporation who live on the island of Molokai. As the papers were placed in the hands of the High Sheriff for service at the close of business hours they were not available to the press.

The bill sets forth some of the facts relating to the condition of the company which are already well known, and its prayers are for the appointment of a receiver and a winding up of the affairs of the company.
